SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #9
26 February - 3 March 1964

1. The MSOC Staff met with Harry Seymour of Brookings on 26 February to review the course just completed and to make plans for the next one. Mr. Seymour agreed to eliminate those speakers that had not been well received. It was also agreed that a United Nations trip would be within the scope of the Brookings effort, and this will be scheduled for 8 May, the last day of the Brookings phase.

2. The Staff has completed a study of the students attending the first two courses in terms of their background, their potential for broader responsibilities, and their degree of participation in the Course. The purpose of this evaluation is to assist the Heads of Career Services in selecting highly qualified candidates for future courses.
